

St. James's Hotel and Club awarded Five AA red Stars at the AA Hospitality Awards 2011-2012

The prestigious AA Hospitality Awards were held at the London Hilton on Park Lane in the festive Grand Ballroom where St. James's Hotel and Club were delighted to scoop Five AA Red Stars.

Each year the AA select the best hotels in each rating. These selected Inspectors' Choice hotels stand out as the very best in the British Isles, regardless of style, and are identified by Red Stars. In the same category were The Savoy, The Four Seasons Hotel Park Lane and Robin Hutson's Limewood in Lyndhurst, Hampshire. St. James's Hotel and Club also boasts 3 AA Rosettes. Rosettes are awarded annually to AA inspected restaurants demonstrating culinary mastery and excellence.

Henrik Muehle, Managing Director of St. James's Hotel and Club says " We had a great evening, we took at table of 12 guests to enjoy a festive evening amongst hotel and culinary experts, in great surroundings. We are proud of our Red Stars and Rosettes and will continue to strive for more!"

St. James's Hotel and Club boasts 60 elegantly designed bedrooms, 10 of which are luxurious suites, an impressive Rosenstein Art Collection. St. James's Bistro and the Michelin-starred Seven Park Place restaurant is run by William Drabble, a unique location in London's chic St. James's, offering attentive service, exquisite bedrooms and ultimate cuisine.
