St James's Club Rules and Regulations

We don't like them! And we don't make a big fuss about them, but for reference they are enclosed here within. We have found that what works at the St James's Club is just general polite etiquette. The relationship between our team and our members has been built on this and it is one of the truly unique facets that gives us such a wonderful ambience.

Membership Cards

These are uniquely numbered and the number remains the same for the duration of membership. Kindly show the staff member your membership card when settling any bills.

Membership Fee

The period of access is one year and will be from the date of joining. Memberships are non-transferable and members and/or their spouse indicated on the application form are the sole user/s. The Club reserves the right to increase the fee at any time.

Accounts

All accounts are to be settled prior to departure at St James's Club and when visiting reciprocal clubs. Members are responsible for any outstanding bills incurred by their guests. St James's Club is unable to settle bills on members' behalves at reciprocal clubs.

Complaints

Members should put any complaints about the Club in writing for the consideration of management. All complaints will be held in the strictest confidence.

Ideas

Members should put any suggestions for improvements to the Club in writing for the consideration of management. All ideas will be held in the strictest confidence but are welcomed as we are keen to provide a continuously improving service.

Animals

Animals, with the exception of guide dogs, are not permitted.

Dress Code

We want our members to be comfortable and we do not have a dress code with the exception of smart casual for our fine-dining restaurant, Seven Park Place.

Letters of Introduction

Please request Letters of Introduction by email to reservations@stjameshotelandclub.com during office hours (UK time Monday-Friday 9am-6pm). Outside office hours, please email requests to info@stjameshotelandclub.com.

Restaurant Reservations for Seven Park Place and 1857 Bar and Bistro

Due to the popularity of Seven Park Place and William's Bar and Bistro, it is strongly recommended to check availability and reserve a table in advance to avoid disappointment. This can be done by email restaurant@stjameshotelandclub.com or by telephone +44 (0)207 316 1600.

Noise

Good relations with our neighbours are of prime importance to the Club. We would ask all Members to be conscious of this, especially in the evening or at night, and at all times when leaving the Club. We are in a mixed residential and commercial area and, as well as our own hotel residents, we have neighbours, with children, close by.

Reciprocal Arrangements

St James's Club may enter into reciprocal arrangements with other clubs on agreed terms. Any such arrangement may be terminated or modified by St James's Club.

Contact Details

Kindly inform the Club Secretary if your contact details change (email, telephone or postal address). This can also be done by email to reservations@stjameshotelandclub.com or by writing to The Club Secretary at St James's Club, 7-8 Park Place, London SW1A 1LS.

Disclaimer

Loss or injury to any Member or any guests or to any goods or property of theirs on the premises of St James's Club, shall not give rise to any claim against St James's Club or any employee of St James's Club, provided that this disclaimer does not purport to override any statutory liability of the company.

Data Protection

Under the data protection act 1998 we have a legal duty to protect any personal information we collect from you. We will only use personal information you supply to us for the reason that you provide it. We will not pass your information to any other parties.
