IN LONDON

Step into Land of the Lions

Land of the Lions is here! ZSL London Zoo's newest and most breath-taking exhibit transports visitors from the heart of London to India's vibrant Sasan Gir, where they can get closer than ever before to mighty Asiatic lions.

Shrek's Adventure London

London's newest family attraction! Step into the kingdom of Far Far Away and enjoy a brand new madcap Shrek adventure where amazing DreamWorks animation, captivating story-telling and a good dose of Donkey's cheekiness awaits.

The London Dungeon (all ages)

It has all the ghastly gore and black comedy of the old Tooley Street attraction in a bigger and more high-tech package. A jokey celebration of torture, death and disease, visitors can journey back in time to London's plague-ridden streets (rotting corpses, rats, vile boils and projectile vomiting all come as standard) and meet some of the city's unsavoury characters, from Guy Fawkes to demon barber Sweeney Todd. A cast of blood-splattered actors are joined by 'virtual' guests, such as Brian Blessed as Henry VIII, and as well as the 18 different shows and 'surprises' – which could see you on the run from Jack the Ripper or getting lost in London's Victorian sewers – there are two rides to raise the adrenaline: a turbulent boat trip down the Thames towards execution, and a dark drop ride plunging three stories in the pitch black. Note that the London Dungeon is unsuitable for young or easily scared children.

The View from The Shard (all ages)

TheView is situated at the top of The Shard, on floors 68, 69 and 72, and almost twice the height of any other viewing platform in London. Prepare to embark on a multi-sensory journey to 244m (800ft) above one of the greatest cities on earth. On arrival at Level 00, you will be drawn into the tapestry of London with glimpses of the city laid out before you. Travelling skyward in two high-speed 'kaleidoscopic' lifts, you'll swiftly reach Level 68 - a cloudscape above the world.

BBC Tours

The tour is truly interactive, giving the chance to have a go at making some of their very own TV. Children could play their very own version of the CBBC show Copycats where two teams battle it out in a range of hilarious games, or take part in the new Gory Games Interactive area. As well as all the interactivity, the groups will take a peek into some of the BBC studios and enjoy an exclusive visit to a dressing-room or green room. There are a host of opportunities for photos so don't forget your camera! This interactive fun lasts for one and a half to two hours, and all children must be accompanied by an adult.

The Golden Hinde

Sample a taste of Tudor life on board The Golden Hinde, London's replica of Sir Francis Drake's warship offering visitors an unforgettable Living History Experience. The Golden Hinde is a full-sized reconstruction of the Tudor warship in which Sir Francis Drake circumnavigated the globe in 1577 – 1580.

Biscuit ceramic café, Greenwich

Biscuit is the most exciting place to create your personal masterpiece. Kids can choose from the available ceramic cups, plates, vases and paint colours, to create their own one-off designs. Biscuit is located in Greenwich town centre and it is a place to enjoy quality time with friends and family.

Kensington Palace

The newly-transformed Kensington Palace is now open following a two-year, £12million refurbishment. Explore the new gardens, shops, café and terrace as well as four redesigned visitor routes revealing both the secret and public lives of Kensington's inhabitants. Discover stories from Queen Victoria's life told in her own words in the new Victoria Revealed exhibition; master the games of royal court in the magnificent King's State Apartments; get a glimpse of a modern Princess in a small but special exhibition of some of Diana's dresses and uncover the secrets of a fragile dynasty in the beautiful Queen's State Apartments. A new lift makes the Palace accessible to all and, for the first time, kids under 16 go free.

Dennis Severs House

The house is a time capsule. Its creator, Dennis Severs, used his visitors' imagination as his canvas and lived in the house in much the same way as its original occupants might have done in the early 18th century. The game is that you interrupt a family of Huguenot silk-weavers named Jervis who, though they can still sometimes be heard, seem always to be just out of sight. As you journey off in a silent search through the ten rooms, each by fire and candlelight, you receive a number of stimulations to your senses. It is the smell of food that aligns your imagination with the faces around you in portraits; then... Mr Jervis's meal is only half eaten; did he abandon it when he heard you arrive?

Marvel Super Heroes 4D at Madame Tussaud's auditorium

Enjoy a heroic new experience this summer as Marvel Super Heroes 4D arrives at the attraction. Some of Marvel's best loved Super Heroes will be brought to life in three floors of multisensory fun featuring a mix of interactive themed areas, startlingly realistic wax figures and an ALL NEW Marvel Super Heroes 4D film adventure.

Science Museum

Bringing science to life, and life to science. Investigate science in hands-on galleries, discover famous objects and see amazing effects in IMAX 3D Cinema and motion simulator rides.

Natural History Museum

Marvel at the size of the blue whale, snoop on thousands of live leafcutter ants at work, check out the star attractions, the giant prehistoric dinosaurs or the teeny creepy-crawlies and have fun in the earthquake room.

Ripley's Believe it Or Not

Marvel at over 800 weird and unusual artefacts in over twenty themed galleries spanning four floors.

Cutty Sark

The last surviving tea clipper and the fastest and greatest of her time, she is a living testimony to the bygone, glorious days of sail and, most importantly, a monument to those that lost their lives in the merchant service. Venture aboard and beneath one of the world's most famous ships. Walk along the decks in the footsteps of the merchant seamen who sailed her over a century ago. Explore the hold where precious cargo was stored on those epic voyages then marvel as you balance a 963-tonne national treasure on just one hand.

Fastest, longest, highest... Discover amazing animal records – Natural History Museum

Compare the feats of some past Olympic medallists with extraordinary records from the animal world. When it's animal versus athlete... who wins, Usain Bolt or the African Cheetah, Mo Farah or the American antelope ?

Bank of England Museum, City

The Museum is housed within the Bank of England itself, right at the heart of the City of London. It traces the history of the Bank from its foundation by Royal Charter in 1694 to its role today as the nation's central bank. There are gold bars dating from ancient times, to the modern market bar (you can actually handle a real gold bar), coins and a unique collection of bank notes, as well as many other items you might not expect to find - such as the pikes and muskets once used to defend the Bank. On display are documents relating to famous customers such as the Duchess of Marlborough, George Washington and Horatio Nelson.

The NEW London Dungeon

It has all the ghastly gore and black comedy of the old Tooley Street attraction in a bigger and more high-tech package. A jokey celebration of torture, death and disease, visitors can journey back in time to London's plague-ridden streets (rotting corpses, rats, vile boils and projectile vomiting all come as standard) and meet some of the city's unsavoury characters, from Guy Fawkes to demon barber Sweeney Todd.
